

CHÂTEAU DE GRISSAC
CÔTES DE BOURG

Situated in Blayais-Bourgeais, northeast of Bordeaux, is Domaine du Château de Grissac. This grand property in Côtes de Bourg has 31 hectares of bountiful vineyards and a manor dating back to the 17th century. This historical building evolved from a fortified castle which hosted the philosopher Montesquieu. Today, it is transformed into a luxury boutique resort all the while producing Côtes de Bourg and Bordeaux Supérieur wines from its vines. This estate beautifully encapsulates Bordeaux's rich history, natural beauty, and wine culture.
